WHO CAN SHOP ON-LINE

Anyone with Computer Access.

WHO WANTS TO SHOP ON-LINE

I have not a clue but its the fastest growing sector in retail so the answer could be LOTS!!

THIS FRIDAY 29TH.

NOVEMBER IS A SPECIAL

FRIDAY WHEN MORE

INTERNET SHOPPING IS DONE

THAN ON ANY OTHER DAY

IN THE YEAR

Reasons Against Shopping On-Line

- No facility to physically examine your purchase prior to buying
 - You may have to pay delivery charges
 - You cannot select the exact item you require (eg. You cannot select the actual orange you want, you rely on someone else to ensure it's wholesome)
 - No contact with shop assistant to give you advice on your purchase
 - No Coffee and Danish with your friends

Reasons For Shopping On-Line

- No Car Parking Problems

- Often get Free Delivery (Not Groceries)

- Any item can be returned within 10 days for a full refund INCLUDING POST AND PACKING CHARGES (Theirs and yours although conditions apply) & no reason for return is required.

- Gift wrapping available.

- Delivery direct to recipients address(Ideal for Christmas Pressies)

Reasons For Shopping On-Line Continued!

- Most, if not all, major retailers have web-sites and more smaller businesses are going on-line daily.
 - Payment usually pretty secure. (Although I do suggest you use a credit card for added protection. Also it's a good idea to use a specific card for on line use with a lowish credit limit)
 - More & more retailers are now offering a “Click and Collect” service which gives you the best of both worlds. Buy on-line collect and pay in store.
 - No crowded buses or trains to negotiate

Eco-friendly(One delivery vehicle can make lots of deliveries per shift as against many journeys to shops)

- No battling with children, pushchairs, shopping trolleys etc.

How do You Shop On Line ?

A) Go to the web site of your choice. Either via a search engine (eg. Google, Ask, Bling etc.).

B) Or use a search engine to locate suppliers of the item you require.

C) Or just browse through various stores web-sites

What to do Next

- Having found the item you wish to purchase visit a price checker comparison site, such as “www.pricerunner.co.uk”, “www.kelkoo.co.uk”, “www.idealo.co.uk”, etc.
 - Having found the site offering the lowest price for the item (including any delivery charges) put the store into Topcash to see if you can get cashback making the item even cheaper!

Your delivery RIGHTS

- Any damage or breakage en route is the responsibility of the SELLER–this applies even if you have signed to accept the delivery. You should NOT be told to take up the complaint with the delivery company.
 - You should NOT incur the cost of returning a faulty item purchased on-line. You should only have to cover the cost of returning an item if you change your mind–not where there is a problem.
 - Your on-line shopping rights are stronger than on the High Street. You don't even have to find an item faulty to send it back–the Distance Selling Regulations give you from the moment you place your order, up to 7 working days (from when you receive the goods) to simply change your mind. There are some exceptions including bespoke goods and personalised items.

- If you paid for delivery by a certain date/time, and it arrives late, this is the SELLERS breach of contract. You should ask for any sum you paid for the faster delivery service be refunded by the SELLER.
